A PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY OF

In the Herald - - - - 119,352

CAN YOU GUESS WHY THIS IS THUSLY?

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1889.

BLAINE.

He Will Be Mr. Harrison's Secretary of State.

Mr. Platt Stands as Authority for This Statement.

Indications That Wanamaker Is Also in the Cabinet.

"I am willing to stand as authority for the statement that James G. Blaine has been offered and has accepted the office of Secretary of State," said Mr. Thomas C. Platt to an EVENING WORLD reporter this morning.

Mr. Platt was tusily engaged at Lis duties President of the United States Express Company when seen. But he was evidently in s pleasant frame of mind, as he waved the reporter to a chair and repeated:

"I am very busy this morning, but I wish to say positively - and vou can quote me as authority for the statement-that James G. Blaine has been offered and has accepted the Secretary of Stateship. This was accomplished some time ago by correspondence. "I do not wish to be interviewed, and do not care to stand as an authority tor any statement I may make beyond the information about Blaine, which is absolutely true." It is almost certain that John Wanamaker will be made either Secretary of the Navy or Postmaster-General. It is doubtful if Gen. Harrison himself has yet made up his mind positively whom he will finally select for the other Cabinet po-

Col. Julian Allen, of North Carolina, one of the Committee of the Southern Exposition which has been looking for a location for an exhibition in this city, says that he had a recent interview with James G. Blaine at Washington. Mr. Blaine, He says told him that Gen. Harrison tendered him the Secretaryship of State shortly after elecion, and he accepted immediately.

STANLEY LEADS THEM ON.

THE LITTLE PITTSBURG BICYCLIST NINE MILES AHEAD OF THE NEXT.

She Had a Spleudid Five-Mile Spurt With Mme. Armaindo-Au Old Trainer Disgusted Because the Girls Chew Gum-Happy Jack Smith. in a Dude Sait, an Interested Looker-on at the Race.

Among the Knickerbockered bicylists, in their mad chase for fame, a small fortune and the championship belt, offered for the Madison Square competition by Kichard K. Fox, Lottie Stanley, the Pittsburg midget, was the der by nine miles this morning, having scored 204 miles at 1 o'clock.

Baldwin was accredited with 195; the perrennial Elsie Von Blumen 191: Kitty Woods, 173; the little Swallow, 170; the tall and slender Lewis, 162; Hart, 147; Jessie Oakes, the Lincolnshire lass, 139: Maggie Harvey McShane, who chivalrously donned the green for Erin, 122: Brown, 115: Mine. A mainto, who has ridden fifty races during the past seven years, and was a charioteer prior to that, was at the tail end of the list, with cold the list. with only 112 miles to her credit.

Mme. Armaindo's illness yesterday was persistent and she suffered terribly. Again and again she essayed to continue the race, and again and again was compelled to retire. She and Miss Stanley made, however, a ter-rific five-mile spurt, beginning at 8.40, the most interesting feature of last evening's

Jessie Oakes, too, suffered, suffered with her bruised side, but pluckily trod her machine.

'' Of course, it is pretty hard to keep on the track with such a side," said the little English girl, '' but I wasn't going to give the newspapers a chance to say I was a coward or The methods of these fine-limbed athletes dosed six-day pedestrians with beef broth, lemon juice and chicken, turned away from lemon juice and chicken, turned away from the contemplation of the racers in disgust.

"Every blessed one of 'em is chankin' gum," he growled. "That's all a woman wants."

Happy Jack Smith is an interested spectator of the race, in a dude suit of clothes and a flat derby.

Dr. Ed. Plummer, standing off and viewing the trim racers with a critical eye, says:

Dr. Ed. Plummer, standing off and viewing the trim racers with a critical eye, says:

'They all have different motions. Von Blumen will go to pieces in the thighs: Brown will go altogether when she does go; Stanley will weaken in her stomach: Lewis in her ankles. Don't you see the motion?"

But the race draws a goodly crowd, and there is considerable betting both among admiring enthusiasts and men who "bet for a winner."

winner."

Dominick McCaffrey, who comes from the same smoky city with Stanley, is offering 3 to 1 on her for a place and 2 to 1 for first

They "Mean Business." For many years the manufacturers of Dr. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY have offered, in good faith, $500 reward for a case of masal catarrh which they cannot cure. The REMEDY is sold by druggists at only 50 cents. This wonderful remedy has fairly attained a world-wide reputation. If you have dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the masal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery and acrid, at others thick, wascions, mucous, purulent, bloody and outrid; if the eyes are weak, watery and inflamed; if there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with yeals from ulcors, the voice being changed and has a masal twang; the breath offensive; smell and taste impagred; sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a backing cough and general debility. You are suffering from nasal catarrh. The more complicated your disease the greater the number and diversity of symptoms. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, less enderstood, or more unsuccessfully treated by physicians. by druggists at only 50 cents. This wonderful

DIPLOMATIC DAN. TINA TO RETURN, PROFIT OFF THE CITY. I

Bobtails or Not.

cial Question of the Future Horse-Car President.

"Nothing Is Too Good for New Yorkers and They Deserve the Best of Everything," He Says.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, I Washington, D. C., Feb. 18 .- "Do you favor or oppose the bobtail cars on horse railway lines ?"

This crucial question was put to Col. Daniel Lamont, the coming President of the Avenue C Street Railway in New York, to-day by an Evening World correspondent. Col. Lamont had arisen to extend a cordial handshake to his visitor, who had just en

House. He was unprepared for the great question but after giving one of his suave smiles he tered the former's private office in the White replied, with his usual diplomacy : 'There is nothing too good for New Yorkers. They deserve the best of every-

THE EVENING WORLD carried on the crusade against the Twenty-third street Juggernauts until they were removed by course of law.

It believed the many, who indersed that movement, would like to know the distinguished Colonel's opinion with regard to the jigger nuisance now that he is to assume control of a prosperous city road. Hence the question asked by its correspondent.

President Lamont will be able to help the 'New Yorkers to the best of everything' the moment he gets on his official harness.

The jiggers are bobbing along now every day over the line he is to manage. They are double-enders, though, and have two horses attached. But the driver is also conductor and lives are thereby endangered.

"There is nothing too good for New Yorkers." Then let them have conductors on the Aue nue C line, President Col. Lamont.

ON THE NEW LIBEL BILLS.

A HEARING TO BE GIVEN BY THE JU-DICIARY COMMITTEE WEDNESDAY.

ALBANY, Feb. 13.-The Judiciary Committee has evidently repented of its hasty decision of yesterday to kill the bill making a plaintiff file a ond for costs before bringing an action for

It is now decided to give a hearing on both the libel bills next Wednesday. Everything has been very quiet in the Assemby to-day, and no reference was made to the up-roar of yesterday.

At noon the Senate and Assembly met in joint session and elected Andrew S. Draper as his own successor in the office of State Superin-tendent of Instruction.

$50,000 Fire at Honesdale.

He Doesn't Say Whether He Favors A Promise That Her Parents May Market Stands Re-Rented at a Big See Her Again.

to This City Next Monday.

In Her Case.

Let "The Evening World" Amendment Be Passed and There Will Be No More Outrages Like This.

THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT.

| Drawn by a well-known Supreme Court Judge. | All proceedings under this section (Sec. 201, Chap commitment shall have been made, shall be subject to review by any court of record, upon certiorari on the facts and the law, and in such a proceeding the commit-ment order or judgment—may be affirmed or reversed or odified in such manner and to such extent as may seem bust, or a rehearing of the charge ordered.

Public interest in the case of Tina Weise, the little twelve-year-old girl who is now separated from her parents by Mr. Gerry's Society, is inreasing every day.

This is especially true of the residents on the east side, where Bernard Weiss, the father, is well known, and influential friends of the family are working with might and main to bring back the child to the parents.

The efforts to have this great wrong righted ave already begun to have effect upon the authorities of the Society which secured the ommitment of the child, and a great point has een gained.

A promise is at last given by Mr. Gerry to the offis of the United Hebrew Charities of the City of New York, whose office is at 58 St. Mark's place, that Tima shall be brought to this city within a week, and that the parents will be given an opportunity of seeing her at the Society's office in Twenty-third street.

Mr. Gerry further promised that if the child

nows any desire to return to her parents and is: not afraid of her father, as has been alleged, she will be given up to them immediately

The day which has been fixed for the meeting enext Monday, when Tina will be brought to own by her present guardians. The gentlemen to whom this promise was made by Mr. Gerry are Vice-President Morris Tuska and Director H. S. Allen, of the United Hebrew Charities Re-

They made a thorough investigation of the case as soon as THE EVENING WORLD told the story to the public and found the facts to be exactly as had been presented by the reporter.

Together they made several visits to the house where Mr. and Mrs. Weiss live, saw the family themselves, talked with the neighbors and came themselves, talked with the neighbors and came away thoroughly convinced that the husband and father was perfectly able to support his family that they were altozether respectable and worthy people, and that the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children had simply made a mistake when they refused to give back the child to its parents.

"There are aways two sides to those questions," said Mr. Tuska to the reporter of The Eventso World yesterday afternoon, "and in this case there is a good deal of justice on the side of the Society. The circumstances under which the child came into their hands show that they were perfectly justified in having the commitment made, for it had no guardian and had been turned out into the street.

"I understand the Society was willing to give up the child if, upon further investigation, it was found that the parents were living in a respectable place and scemed able to support it and bring it upproperly, and an officer of the Society was sent to 132 Broome street, where they were then living to make a report.

"Now this is where the mistake was made."

"THE EVENING WORLD " FIRST.

"The Evening World " Asks This Cru- Mr. Gerry Has at Last Agreed to Bring Her | More Interesting Things Brought Out by Investigation.

> Well-Known Philanthropists Interested Stand-Holders and Subscription Money for ex-Mayor Hewitt.

> > Jacob Levy was the much-wanted witness at the opening of the market investigation before the Commissioners of Accounts this morning.
> >
> > Mr. Levy is the bookkeeper for Butcher Samuel Werner, and assisted in the sale of Daniel Patterson's stand, and knows all about the agreement by which his employer occupies the stand of John Pickford. Commissioner Holahan said that four sub poena servers have been hunting for Mr. Levy. but the most definite information they could get concerning him was that he might be in some saloon in Ludlow street.

John Fleming was called as a witness. He is a Tammany Hall man and asked for four stands, but got but one. He enlisted Alderman Richard J. Sulliv an in his behalf, and also ex-Alderman James J.

Mr. Nicoll showed him a memorandum from John Fleming wants two stands on account of Jim the Comptroller's office, which read:

Witness said that he knew nothing about the memorandum and never saw it. 'Then all you know about it is that you asked

Two of McAuliffe's Ribs Broken in the water for town stands and, being a member of Tammany Hall, you got but one.

"That's about it, and the stand is not what I wanted, nor is it big enough for the necessities of my business."

David Manuell, of 250 East Fifty-first street, for twenty-five years a stand-holder in the old market, was unsuccessful in getting a stand in the new transfer of the new transfer Notwithstanding this fact witness is doing bus-Notwithstanding this fact witness is doing business at two stands, permits for which are held by Philip Howell. For those he pays $20 weekly rent, and Howell pays only $11 to the city.

The witness's son drew up the lease agreement and he agreed to produce him before the Commissioners as a witness.

Joseph W. Wenck, a salesman for A. Mayer & Co., testified that he held two stands in the old market which he sublet to Bloch & Pidian. He secured one and one-half stands in the new market through the assistance of Senator Cantor, for the benefit of his mether, who was the real beneficiary in the matter of the old market stands.

The stands allotted to him are now unoccupied, but witness expects to occupy them shortly.

pied, but witness expects to occupy them shortly.

Levi Samuels, the Marshal of the parade on the occasion of the opening of the new market, was next examined.

He was a stand-holder in the old market about fitteen years ago and received a permit for three stands in the new.

Mr. Samuels was an early bird. He made his application to ex-Comptroller Locw before he left office, but was told that the matter would be left entirely with his successor.

Mr. Samuels said that he was one of the warmest friends friends of Supt. Kelso.

He made an early application to Comptroller Myers for stands, or rather "demanded" them, as he expressed it.

His demand was well received, he testified, and the Comptroller more stands. The Comptroller directed Mr. McAdam to make a memorandum to that effect.

Mr. Nicoll here produced several memorandas from the Comptroller's office, neither of which lows:

Stand by Samuels. Namels in proceedage.

Stand by Samuela. Name's in pocketbook.
See Waitman. Stand slongeide of Levi Samuels.
Go ever slip record and note who knocked out and why.

K. Fox,	At noon the Senate and Assembly met in joint	show that they were perfectly justified in having the commitment made, for it had no guardian	Go over slip record and note who knocked out and why.	1 was the	At noon the Senate and Assembly met in joint session and elected Andrew S. Draper as his own successor in the office of State Superin-	and had been turned out into the street. "I understand the Society was willing to give up the child if, upon further investigation, it was found that the parents were living in a respectable place and seemed	The witness attempted to explain the matter of the last memorandum by saying that the	1
, having	tendent of Instruction. The Democrats voted for Andrew McLean, of	give up the child if, upon further investi-	Comptroller asked him why he could not take the	1 1 1
the mast	Brooklyn.	gation. It was found that the parents were living in a respectable place and seemed	stands which would go to two widows in the old market. This the witness refused to accept, and	1 4
Woods,	IT WAS A MISDEMEANOR.	able to support it and bring it upproperly, and an officer of the Society was sent to 102 Brooms	he thought the memorandum was the result, to ascertain who would be knocked out to make	1
tall and	TI WAS IN MICHAELING	street, where they were then living, to make a	room for him.	1
Jessie	Walking Delegate O'Neill's Interference	report. Now this is where the mistake was made.	Mr. Samuels was asked if he carried around through the West Washington Market a sub-	3
Maggie	with a Funeral Procession.	The officer found the parents living at that	scription for the benefit of the Hewitt campaign fund in the last election.	1860
donned	The action of Walking Delegate Maurice	time with another family, and seeing one man lying on the lounge and another	He suswered that he not only did it for Mr.	16072
s during	O'Neill, of the Brooklyn Cab-Drivers' Union, in delaying the funeral of Mrs. Charles Fahlbusch	lying in bed in an adjoining room, after making a few inquiries of the two	Hewitt, but for the whole ticket. He collected $502 and turned over the amount	W 0 arioteer	because a scab driver was on a carriage in the	women present, went away and reported that the	to Jas. J. Kelso, Superintendent of Markets.
the list.	procession, is much talked of across the bridge.	father was drunk and the people and surroundings disreputable. "He didn't know that the day on which he	Of this sum three or four subscribed $50 each. Among these were Mr. Samuels and David lay was	Other members of the Union say O'Neill	collect was a Hebrew heinter and the men har-	O'Brien, who holds four stands in the new mar- ket.	here th
he race,	should not have interfered with the procession, and under the laws of the State it would appear	pened to be home, and were simply asleep or dozing and not drunk. I am convinced that the man is soler and industrious. I can	Mr. Nicoll proved that most of his clients who had failed to get stands, had also failed to sub-	Both me
o retire.	that O'Neill has let himself into a possibly seri-	the man is sober and industrious. I can	scribe to this fund, which the witness said was to defray the expense of Mr. Kelso's organiza-	The n er, a ter- 8.40, the	ous scrape. Section 315 of the Penal Code says, under the	say from my own observation that the rooms where the parents are now living are clean and	to defray the expense of Mr. Reiso's organiza- tion of the Twenty-first Assembly District in the	displaye vening's	title, "Disturbing Funerals:"	comfortably furnished, and that they appear in	great parade. Assistant Corporation Counsel Wickes moved	It was
ed with	A person who, without authority of law, obstructs or detains any persons engaged in carrying or accompany- ing the dead body of a human being to a place of burial	every way able to take care of their children properly. The other little girl is going to	to have all the testimony regarding this sub-	durance her ma-	ing the dead body of a human being to a place of burial is guilty of a misdemeanor.	School."	scription paper stricken out. Commissioner Holahan said that he would be	At firs terran and	The punishment for a misdemeanor is $500	Supposing that Tina has forgotten her parents and likes the people she is now living with,	glad to do this if it were not for the fact that the money had been traced directly to an official in	At the keep on the little	fine or one year's imprisonment in the peniten- tiary or county jail or both.	will the Society give her up?"	the Finance Department.	cago, sa
give the		"Well, that was not in the agreement, and I am aware that a child of her age may be weaned		a shade oward or	HOBOKEN FIREMEN SPILT OUT.	away from her relatives if she does not see them	The Quotations. Open. Bigh. Low.	In the athletes	The Truck Upset and Two Men Were Badly	for a long time. To tell the truth, however, I think it is the	American Cotton Oil 50% 60 50	Meyers's endur- who has	Hurt.	intention of the Society to return the child to its parents, unless it shows a very strong aversion	Brunswick Land 1994 1994 1994	having t
f broth,	As Fire Engine No. 3, of the Hoboken Meadow	to them, which I do not think possible under the circumstances, for I am convinced of their sin-	Central Pacific 36 364 36 364 36 Cieve, Cel., Cin. & Ind. 734 578 734	- 3
ay from	Company, was on its way to a fire at Second and	cerity in the matter. I can assure you that within a week they will have her back again."	Chesapeaks & Ohio 000 01 000 Chicago Gas Trust 3894 3894 3894	The t hankin'	Clinton streets, Hoboken, at 3 o'clock this morn-	Mrs. Kokelowich, who has undertaken to raise	Chie., Burl. & Quincy 101 101 50 Chicago & Northwest 1054 1064 1054	B o'clock woman	ing, it upset with serious results. The engineer, Joseph Woltz, was badly hurt	funds to assist the parents in recovering their lost Tina, expressed great satisfaction when she	Chie, Mil & St. Paul 63% 63% 63%	At Hat ed spec-	around the hips, and was taken to his home in	learned of the new turn that matters had taken.	Chie, Mil. & St. P. prd	Moyer ( clothes	an unconscious state.	"I am not going to give up the fight on that account, however, you may be sure," she said to	Chicago & Eastern Blinois 4494 45 4446 Chic. & Eastern Blinois, prid 9934 9834 9834 Chic. 100 107 100	another
d view-	Alfred Kennedy, the fireman, was badly bruised around the arms and legs. He was	account, however, you may be sure. "she said to The Evening Would reporter. "You can never tell what those Gerry people will do, and we are	Chicago & Eastern Illinois, 143 45 444 45 44	train si town, w
e. says :	bruised around the arms and legs. He was taken to St. Mary's Hospital. The driver, Thomas Craig, got off with a little shaking up.	going to get back that child if I have to go and .	Del Lack & Western 141% 141% 141% Delaware & Hudson 137% 137% 137%	The 1
thighs:		See Goy. Hill himself. Another point in our favor is that the child	E. Tenn. Va & Ga. let prd 70% 70% 70% 70% Ft. Worth & Den City 34% 24% 24% 24%	proudly loes go:	about $500. The cause of the accident is supposed to be a short turn. The fire that the en-	was committed on false testimony, for it was	Green Bay & Winona. 198 056 054 (Illinois Central 1994 1997 1999)	Uere a
: Lewis	gine was hurrying to was put out with a bucket of water.	guardian, when the father and mother were	Lake Shore 104% 104% 104%	On Recoi
wd, and		guardian, when the father and mother were able to take care of it, and could have been found if the Society had taken any pains at all	Lake Erie & Western 1856 1856 1856 1856 Lake Erie & Western pid 5784 5784 207 1852 207 1852 207 1852 207 207 207 207 207 207 207 207 207 20	It was bet for a	FIRE IN A CHICAGO HOTEL.	to look for them Then when they did send out to investigate	Louisville & Nashville	the hall.
 *	Guests Escape to the Street in Their Night	the case, and reported that Mr. Weiss was a	Louis New Alb. & Chi. 47 475 47 Michigan Central 1004 1005 1005	seats arr from the	Robes.	drunken and disrepainble character, which was mitrue, they got themselves into a pretty tight	Mil. L. S. & West. 1014 1024 1024 1024 Missouri Pacific 725 134 724	modated for first	[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]	The regular monthly meeting of the Board of		Over
	CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—The Southern Hotel was	Directors of the S. P. C. C. was held at the office at Twenty-third street and Fourth avenue	Now Jersey Central US US US N Y & New England 48% 48% 4.7% 48%	Welco damaged by fire here this morning to the extent of $10,000. Many of the inmates escaped in	last evening. All the members were present, and The Evening World bill now before	N Y Lake Eric & Western 29 20% 25% N.Y. Lake Eric & Western pfd. 08% 08% 08% 08%	dine-box
s of Dr.	their night clothes, but none were seriously	the Judiciary Committee of the Assembly was	N. Y. Suseq. & West. 104, 104, 104, 104, N. Y. Suseq. & West. ptd. 3444, 3484, 3484, Norfolk & Western ptd. 52 52 52 5134	fishes, in good	injured.	the special subject of discussion. After several speeches had been made a vote was taken, and	Name Control 18
l catarrh	Sister-in-Law Williams Gets $4.500.	the members were unanimous in denouncing the	Northern Pacific 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7	Long
onderful	The jury which has been engaged in the trial of Miss Margaret Louise Williams's suit against	bill.		THE RESERVE AND DESCRIPTION
e reputa-	her brother-in-law. David Kearr, a wealthy	"THE EVENING WORLD " FIRST,	Onlario & Mississippi	950 to che, ob-	West and the standard of the s	to the Park of the Plate than I	Oregon Short Line 48 48 48	best of metimes a thick.	for breach of promise of marriage, before Judge	It Announced the Result of the Vight Ahead of All Contemporaries.	Oregon Shart Line. 48 48 48 48 48 48 48 48 48 48 48 48 48	had bear
a thick, dy and and in- leafness,	verdict of $4,500 for the plaintiff.	THE EVENING WORLD WAS the first afternoon	Philadelphia & Reading 4814 4816 4816 Philadelphia Gas. 774 7714 7716 Peoria Decatur & Evan. 28 2814 271	ern hora
leafness,	Miss Williams was the sister of hearrs hist wife, and she claimed that he had repeatedly as-	paper selling on the streets to-day with positive	Pullman Palace Car Company. 204 204 2024	souls, el t, expec-	washington haracteristics to be a second of promise of marriage, before Judge McGown in the City Court to-day returned a verdict of $4,500 for the plaintiff. Miss Williams was the sister of Kearr's first wife, and she claimed that he had repeatedly assaulted her under threats that he would expose the secret of her carly life. She claimed that after her sister's death he promised to marry her.	information of the result of the battle between	Oragon Railway & Navgaston 6the 6th 6th<	dered.
nged and	after her sister's death he promised to marry	Meyer and McAuliffe.	St. Paul & Omaha old 004 004 80	4400
ess, with	her.	It appeared on Park row at 1 r. m. promptly. A very little Sun came out eight minutes later	St. Paul & Duluth 1874 1874 1875 1876 1	At 5, 2
catarrh.	$50,000 Fire at Honesdale.	A very little Sua came out eight minutes later with the news not half as well told.	St Louis & San Fran Did 103 2034 2034 86 84 Louis & San Fran Did 103 63 63 63 63 63 63 63 63 63 63 63 63 63	the spec pear. T
e greater Thou-	Sanction De Pale 13 Honordale had a	stated that the fight would 'probably be a	Tean Con a from	came fr
uifesting	Scranton, Pa., Feb. 13.—Honesdale had a fifty-thousand-dollar fire at 10 o'clock last	draw," whereas, in fact, it was a draw, as stated in The Evening World.	Union Paring	the figh
епна ін но	night. The stores of Ryan & Dietzer, boots and	The Evening Telegram came on the street a	Tenn. Cont & Front. 12 3 4 4 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	As it e cated by	night. The stores of Ryan & Dietzer, boots and shoes; S. W. Powell, general merchandise, and W. W. Effering & Son. bakers, were destroyed, and a number of dwelling houses damaged.	with the news not half as well told. The Evening News was out before that, but it stated that the fight would "probably be a draw," whereas, to fact, it was a draw, as stated in The Evening World. The Evening Telegram came on the street a few seconds later than the News, predicting about as correctly as usual in such cases, that "Mac will win."	St. Louis & San Fran. ptd. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1.	put out
cated by	and a number of dwelling houses damaged.	"Mac will win."	Wheeling & Lake Eris 04% 00 04%	At ba

A DRAW

The Great McAuliffe-Meyer Battle This Morning.

Sixty-Four Plucky Rounds Between the Light-Weights.

AND MEYER WAS NEARLY BLINDED

Sheriffs Are "Persuaded" Not to Stop the Fight.

A Great Crowd of Sports Present to Witness the Struggle.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] NORTH JUDSON, Ind., Feb. 13.—The great McAuliffe-Meyer fight for the light-weight championship of America and $5,000 was fought

JACK M'AULIPPE. here this morning. It was a great contest. Both men were unusually game, and the battle was declared a draw in the sixty-fourth'round.

The men were in the pink of condition and displayed great science. It was a very long contest, and tried the endurance as well as the skill of the fighters. At first the betting was wholly in favor of Mc-Auliffe, but later on it was even.

At the fortieth round Parson Davies, of Chicago, said it was an almost even fight, with just a shade in Meyer's favor, and he had $10,000 on McAuliffe.
In the latter rounds the fighting dragged, Meyers's eves being nearly blinded and McAuliffe having two ribs broken. OFF FOR THE PIGHTING OROUNDS The train bearing many of the interested parties left Chicago for the fighting ground at 8 o'clock last night. At Hammond, Ind., about five hundred of the Mayer party, who came up from Streator on another road, were taken on board, and the train sped along towards this little Indiana town, which was reached about 3 o'clock. The party then started for the little hall. proudly called by the rural denizen "Burcck

Here a delay of over three hours was caused on account of having to make a ring. It was a ruised platform built in the middle of the hall, with eight posts and double ropes. The drop curtain to the stage was taken down and seats arranged in amphitheatre fashion accommodated about seventy-five persons. Over the arch of the stage was the motto

Welcome." The little band-stand was crowded and the body of the hall was packed like a sar-dine-box, with a usual complement of little THE BETTING.

Long before the men appeared in the ring the air was filled with shouts of "$100 to $80 on McAulific," "$75 to $50 on Meyer," "Here's $6.0 to $25 that McAnlifte doesn't receive a knockdown;" *$15 to $30 that Meyer has the best of it.

This din was kept up till long after the sun had began to chase away the mist from the eastern horizon, and hearly every inhabitant of the town, which probably contains not over 1,700 souls, stood out in front of the hall and wondered.

SHOUTING YOR THE PIGHTERS. At 5, 20 the betting began to quiet down, and he speciators set up a cry for the men to apthe speciators set up a cry for the men to appear. They shouted in vain.

"Smoking must be stopped. This order came from a man under a wide-brimmed felt hat. Any man who has any regard for the fighters will not smoke in this half," be continued, but the old stove in the corner smoked. As it could not be induced to desist the fire was put out and the room took on a changed air,

At 5.30 Alf Kennedy amounced that Mike

McDonald, a rich real estate dealer of Chicago, had been chosen referre. He accepted the posi-tion, and both parties to the right seemed satisfied. issled.

The articles of agreement were then read, and settled back for another long wait.

THE REFEREE'S SPEECH.

THE REFERE'S SPECH.

The next thing to stir the speciators was a little speech by Mr. McDonald. He wanted the people to understand that he would be referee, and that any interference by the friends of either main would result in a decision not calculated to suit them.

This was received with applause and the crowd promised to behave like Sanday-school children. Jim McConley should himself hoarse in trying to get a taker for even money on McAuliffe, and during the interval between 5.30 and even money was the rage.

A TOSS FOR CORNERS.

A TOSS FOR CORNERS. At 6 o'clock a toss for corners was made, and the Meyer people calling the turn on the copper chose the place nearest the entrance to the hall. As there was nothing to be gained by a choice, it made little difference with McAuliffe.

M'AULIFFE FIRST IN THE RING. M'AULIFFE FIRST IN THE RING.

At 6.30 o'clock McAuliffe, accompanied by Billy Madden and Tom Drew, entered the ring, and were followed shortly after by Meyer, who was looked after by Tom Lees, the Australian; his brother, Ed Meyer, and Link Pope.

They received a rousing reception, and while Lees and Madden were fanning their more each of the boxers was scrutinized very critically, especially by those who had placed their money on them.

McAuliffe was clad in his customary bare-knee tights, short stockings and black shoes.

He made a splendid appearance, every muscle standing out in a way to show that he had a proper training, and that too much attention had not been paid to muscle binding exercises.

MAC LOOKED CONFIDENT. He looked confident, and when Meyer approached to have an understanding in regard to fighting while clinched Mac stepped forward with the elasticity of a stag.

Meyer, too, looked as though he meant business. He were short stockings, shoes like McAuliffes, and instead of knee breaches were a white trunk similar to those worn by sprint runners.

white fruing similar to those work by sprint runliers.

His skin was as dark as an Indians, and to look at him one would say that the blood of the Mexican flowed in his veins.

His backer, Mr. Kennedy, says, though, that Meyer is a composition of Irish, Scotch and Dutch.

Like Gal McCarthy, the celebrated young bantam, Meyer, chews gum, and chews, too, with all the artisto wag of the jaws supposed to be known only to the girls of Maine.

MEYER CHEWED OUM. One of his Streator friends in explanation of this habit says that Meyer has sayed himself many a hard shock by shifting the cud to the law aimed at by an antagonist. His head is round as a bullet, his forehead low, but the expression of his face is one of deep determination. Before going further it will be necessary to state the time the party arrived at North Judson.

THE SHERIFF INTERPARED. It was about 11.30. The hall was reached by 12, but after waiting half an hour for the door to be opened it was discovered that the Sherif had given instructions not to let the hight go on. The reason for his refusal was that he had not received enough money for the privilege.

All hands immediately started for the train, where word was passed around that a run to Hammond, this State, would be made to see if anything could be done in that town.

THE SHERIFF RELENTS. THE SHERIFF RELENTS.

The train was loaded and started back towards Chicago, but while waiting on a side track about six miles from town for a freight to pass. Billy Madder and Jim Colville successed in coaxing the Sheriff over to their way of thinking.

It needed a little soap, however, and the Sheriff departed with smiles playing hide-and-seek through his iron-gray whiskers.

After crossing with the freight, the train was pulled, or rather pushed back to North Judson, and the party feeling in a little better spirits started on foot for the hall.

BACK IN THE HALL. It was then about 3 o clock, and before the crowd was let into the hall ten great shutters, larger than the largest New England barn doors, were brought in from the baggage door.

These were so arranged that they could be mortised together, and when laid on horses about three feet from the floor made an excellent ring.

The time occupied in making the ring was two hours and then another delay was caused by the managers announcing that the fight would not proceed until every man had left the ball in order that their tickets might be taken on their return.

return. MORE DELAY AND RICKING. This cansed a great deal of murmuring, and slowly, one by one, they went out into the night. It was impossible, however, to completely clear the hall, and after about an hour had been wasted in the attempt it was given up.

BETTING HOT AND PUBLOUS. Then, after the return of the spectators, betting became hot and furious, and was kept up until the appearance of the men in the ring.

The sun being well up and the managers seeming in no hurry to start the fun, a tail, slab-sided, black-mustached fellow jumped into the ring and said.

black mustaches fellow jumped into the range stadd;
"Blame me, if FII let this thing go on."

This announcement brought forth a storm of hisses, mingled with cries of "Oh. Charlie, why don't you let her go." It ain t nathrir but a boxin' match, and that's not agin the law. Say, Charlie, let her go."

The pleadings of Charlie's friends only made him more determined. He wanted everybody to understand that "Nuth Judson" was a good moral town, and "shiver-his staircase" if he'd have any bloody prige-rights within its sacred precincts.

have any bloody price-nghts within its sacred precincies.

All hands at that time gathered around and tried to reason with him, but Charlie wouldn't be reasoned with, and, to add to the misery of all who were interested in seeing the fight go in, the Sheriff jumped after Charlie and set he had only given his consent to allow a boxing match to go on, but that finding it was to be a sangularry affair he withdrew his official consent, but said nothing about persuaders given him early in the evening.

$100 TO EACH SHERIFF. $100 TO EACH SHEATEF.

It was very evident from Charlie's actions that he and the Sheriff, too, were after a little more boodie. They got it, $100 each, and Charlie amounced amid deafening cheers that the boxing match would proceed.

Fearing that Charlie's fields mind might revert to boodie, the principals in the great fight for $5,000 and the championship light-weight belt pulled on a pair each of very thin flugrices skin gloves and aunounced their readiness to proceed.

THE FIGHT BEGINS.

THE PIGHT BEGINS. At just 6.54 o'clock in the morning Beferee Mike McDonald and the nien stepped to the centre of the ring and the fighting began.

THE FIGHT BY ROUNDS.

A Very Game Battle in Which Meyer Surprised the Spectators.

First Round—McAuliffe led with his left and forced Meyer to the robes and landed his left on his nose and his right on his ribs. The round ended in favor of McAuliffe.

Second Round—There was an exchange in Second Round—There was an exchange in Auguste.

PRICE ONE CENT.

which Meyer landed on his opponent on the back of the neet, getting in return a stinger on the neet. McAniife clipped at the ropes, saving himself from a terrible right-hand swing. A foul was claimed, but not allowed. The round coded with cantions sparring.

Third Round-Cantions sparring at the opening. McAniife led lightly, and then landed heavily with his left, receiving a right-hander. McAniife here rushed, and there was an ever exchange, Meyer getting in a good right-hand blow full in McAniiffe's face which almost staggered him.

gered him.

Fourth Round—Both men were very cantious, sparring for an opening. Not a blow was struck in this round.

Fifth Round—Meyer landed on McAuliffe's ribs with his right and struck short again with ribs with his right and struck short again with his left.

Sixth Round—Again cautious work, but one I low was struck. McAuliffe's right being cleverly stopped by Meyer.

Seventh Round—McAuliffe landed lightly on Meyer's month without return. McAuliffe rushed his man to his corner, having a short-arm exchange.

Meyer's mouth without return. McAuliffe rushed his man to his corner, having a shortarim exchange.

Eighth Round—This round opened with cautious sparring. Meyer on the defensive, as usual. Meyer now held with his right, landing on McAuliffe smouth, following it up with his left full on Mac's nose, without return.

Ninth Round—Meyor led with his right, and landed on Mac's arm. Again there was cautious work. Mac got in a good right and a left full in Meyer's face and got away without a return. The round ended with cantious sparring. After this round floche placed $500 even.

Tenth Round—This round opened the same as the last. Not a blow was struck.

Eleventh Round—McAuliffe rushed Meyer, two short-arm blows being exchanged, ending in a clinch. Mac was still doing all the leading. The round closed with cautious work.

Twelfth Round—Opened with an exchange of short-arm blows, ending in a clinch. Mac again led with his left, receiving a stinger in the face before he could get away. Meyer landed lightly on Mac's nose.

Thirteenth Round—There was cautious sparring for over two minutes, when Mac led with his left, receiving a stinger in the face. Fourteenth Round—There was cautious sparring for over two minutes, when Mac led with his left, receiving a stinger in the face. Fourteenth Bound—Acaliffer rushed Meyer, landing with his left on his nose and receiving two stinging blows on his face and neck. In rushing a second time Mac slipped and fell, Meyer on top. Mac then commenced forcing matters and rushed, closing the round.

Fifteenth Round—This round was extremely target and his but and swith a vicious right-hand swing full in the face after sparring for an opening.

after sparring for an opening.

Sixteenth Round This round was extremely tame, nothing but sparring for wind being tame, nothing but sparring for wind being done.

Seventeenth Round—McAuliffe led with his left and reached Meyer's eye, but was heavily countered on the body.

Eighteenth Round—Meyer's right eye showed signs of closing, otherwise both men in good condition. There was cautious sparring, not a blow being atruck.

Nineteenth Round—Neither man seemed anxious to force matters. Careful sparring for wind. McAuliffe attempted to catch Meyer off his guard and a chirch followed.

Twentieth Bennd—McAuliffe landed with his left and right on Meyer's left eye and got away without a return. There was again sparring for wind to the end of the round.

Twenty-first Round—McAuliffe opened the round with a rush, landing lightly on Meyer's forehead, ending with a clinch. Meyer landed heavily on Mac ribs with his right. Caroful sparring to the end of the round.

Twenty-second Round—Both men came up fresh and strong. Meyer's eyes were blackening; otherwise heither man showed signs of punishment. The round was but a repetition of their past facilies, sparring for an opening.

ing: otherwise neither man showed signs of punishment. The round was but a repetition of their past tacties, sparring for an opening.

Twenty-third Round-McAulific opened with a rush, landing heavily on Meyer's nose. Some in-lighting followed, which resolved in a clinch. Mac led with his left, and again landed on Meyer's face getting away without a return. Meyer barely missed a victions right and left, lunge by McAulific which would have settled the affair.

In the twenty-sixth round McAulific opened with a rush, a short-arm exchange being followed by a clinch. Both men are in great condition. After about two minutes time was called for two minutes by Referee McDonald to show the Sherifi that this was a boxing match, and not a fight. The Sherifi left the hall, after promising that if he hears of either or them being hurt he would arrest every one in the room.

Twenty-seventh Round-Meyer opened with a stinging left hander on Mac's nose and followed it with a wicked tight-hand upper cut. Both men are strong with honors even.

Twenty-tighth Round-The round had just opened when one of the town marshals came in and said he would not have the fight go on, as he understood it was not a boxing match, but a fight. The fight was delayed twenty minutes, but an arrangement was made, however, to continue it.

Twenty-ninth to Thirty-fourth Round-Time fight. The fight was delayed twenty minutes, but an arrangement was made, however, to continue it.

Twenty-ninth to Thirty-fourth Round—Time was called at 0.05. Both men were fresh after their twenty-live minutes rost. Meyer rushed the lighting at the opening and failing short in his blow was heavily countered. Mac now landed with his left on Meyer's chest and got away, and to the end of the thirty-fourth round it was tittle more than a walk around.

Thirty-fifth to Fifty-second Round—Fifty-two rounds have now been fought without either man having obtained any decided advantage, although Meyer has a shade the bast of it. Both men are fighting strong but cautiously. The Streater boy is letting McAuliffe do most of the leading, and when the latter does so always manages to get in an effective counter.

McAuliffe has two ribs broken and Meyer is nearly blinded. There is great excitement among the crowd, which is urging the men on, being evidently wired of waiting.

Fifty-third to Sixtueth Round—There was little difference in the chances of either winning in this round. It looks now as if the fight would be a draw.

Sixty-fourth Round—It was apparent that the fight must be a draw.

Referee McDonald so called it.

(The full records of the two men will be found.

(The hall records of the two men will be found in the Becond Page.)

SHOT BY THE POLICEMAN.

AN ITALIAN'S MURDEROUS CAREER STOPPED BY A BROOKLYN OFFICE R.

Jack Melia, a laborer, living at 236 North Fifth street, Brooklyn, was shot in the right less soon after midnight this morning by another Italian named Franzero Pace, who, in turn, was dangerously wounded by a policeman's bullet, Pace, whe lives at 11 Maspeth avenue, called at Melia's rooms, in North Fifth street, at about 10 o'clock at night, and they drank beer and played cards for two hours.

Hot words and then blows came, and finally Pace, finding himself worsted in fair fight, drew a revolver and fired two shots at Metia. One of the bullet-lodged in the upper part of his right leg, but the other missed.

The shots brought Patrolman Short, of the

The shots brought Patrolman Short, of the Fifth Precinct, who summoned an ambulance and had the man removed to the Eastern District Hospital.

He then went in search of Pace, whom he found at his home and attempted to arrest him. Pace opened life on the officer, discharging two shots.

Short drew his own revolver, and taking careful aim fired at Pace's right arm, intending to disable him. The bulkt instead entered the Italian's right side, causing what may prove a death wound. He was also taken to the hospital, and is in a critical condition.

At the hearing of the case against the libelled steamer Carondelet in the United States District Court to-day, letters from Secretary Bayard to Trying to Hold the Carondelet.